GREETING AND NOTICES OF PARISH LIFE

CALL TO WORSHIP and PRAYER OF INVOCATION (in unison)

When we are hungry we search for bread.
When we are thirsty we search for water.
When we are hungry and thirsty in spirit we search for God.

Only those who long for connection will initiate it.
Only those who ache for meaning will pursue it.
Only those who yearn for a deeper life will seek it.
This is a place for those who ache and yearn and long for something more.

So let us come here today,
in body and in spirit,
with our hunger and thirst,
our unsatisfied longings,
our heart-felt yearnings,
and let the God of life feed, nurture, and satisfy our souls.

Let us pray:

God of dawning light, who greets us new every morning, you speak to us in so many ways: in the beauty of the created world, in the interactions we have with one another, in the struggles and wrestling matches we have within ourselves. Thank you for this gift. May we gently lay down those things that we are wrestling with today, placing them in your care, so that we might be more fully present to you in this hour. May your Spirit inspire us with purpose and guide us forward with hope and joy. Amen.

As you draw us close, O God, may your Spirit move among us as we pray the words that Jesus taught us:

THE LORD'S PRAYER (in unison)

we pray the words Jesus taught us: Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

THE PASSING OF THE PEACE

The peace of God be with you. AND ALSO WITH YOU.

THE SCRIPTURE LESSON

Genesis 32:22-31

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, along with all his possessions. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then the man said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me." So the man said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But the man said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.
