LOVE

ONE ANOTHER

AS I

HAVE LOVED

YOU.

GATHERING WORDS

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Please rise as you are able in body or spirit.

One: We are Jesus' disciples,
following him even as he moves toward the cross.

Many: As he kneels to wash the dust from the feet of his friends.
As he breaks bread and pours the cup one last time.

One: We are Jesus' disciples,
longing to be faithful as the night grows dark.

Many: As betrayers loom.
As the powers that oppose the way of Christ press in around us.

One: We are Jesus' disciples,
struggling to love and forgive as Jesus did.

Many: As he broke bread with those who would abandon him.
As he forgave those who turned against him.

One: We are Jesus' disciples,
loving mercy, acting justly, walking humbly in his footsteps.

Many: We are Jesus' disciples, gathered here to worship our God:
Our Creator, Redeemer, Sustainer. Amen.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION

The congregation may be seated.

LITANY OF CONFESSION and WORDS OF ASSURANCE

One: Surely not us, Lord? Surely not.

Many: Surely we are not the one who will betray you.

One: It's someone else who denies knowing you,

Many: someone else who uses you for their own gain,

One: someone else who wants to control you.

Many: Surely not us.

One: For the times when we deny our faults...

Many: For the times we point fingers to cover up our own wrong...

One: For the times we think of ourselves more highly than we ought...

Many: Forgive us.

One: For the times we have betrayed you with our words—

Many: speaking thoughtlessly, hurting someone to get a laugh,

One: denying that your call extends to every part of our lives...

Many: Forgive us.

One: For the times we have betrayed you with our actions—

Many: living as if you are confined to this sanctuary

One: walking away from those in need, literally and politically...

Many: Forgive us.

One: For the times we have betrayed you with our hearts—

Many: putting you far down our priority lists,

One: longing for our way to be your way...

Many: Forgive us.

One: Surely not us, Lord?

Many: Yet you have said it is so.

One: This truth hurts us, O God, and yet we believe—

Many: We believe that you have the power to transform us.

One: We believe that your grace is enough.

Many: We believe that your love is greater than we can imagine.

One: We believe that you are the Way, the Life, and the Truth—

Many: and this truth sets us free. Amen.

*Hail, true body born of the Virgin Mary,
Who truly suffered, sacrificed on the Cross for man,
Whose pierced side overflowed with water and blood,
Be for us a foretaste in the test of death.*

SCRIPTURE READING

John 13:1-9, 12-15, 34-35

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!"

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.

I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

COMMUNION PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING (in unison)

Kind and gentle Jesus, we give you thanks for this bread and cup, this place and time. When the night is harsh and bitter, may we still be found walking beside you. As you challenge both power and pride, help us to contemplate your courageous acts. Bring us, despite our resistance, to the foot of the cross. And there may we learn to be merciful, in your name. Amen.

THE SERVICE OF TENEBRAE

Tenebrae is the Latin word for "darkness" and has come to be the traditional name of the service of extinguishing of the lights in commemoration of the final events in Jesus' life. During the service of Tenebrae, the sanctuary is gradually darkened. After each reading, a candle is extinguished. Finally, the church is left in nearly total darkness as the Christ candle is extinguished to mark the death of Christ.
